- Riquewihr & Wines of the Alsace. Set in a small valley near the Vosges Mountains, Riquewihr, France, is an enchanting Alsatian village that looks much as it did in the 16th century. Here, local food products are the focus, and you just might give into the temptation to treat yourself to the area's specialties, including delicious charcuterie, liqueurs and sweets. The Place de l'Ancienne Douane market surrounds the fountain dedicated to local 16th-century hero Lazare de Schwendi. Enrichment: German Holiday Traditions. From Advent wreaths to Christmas baking, cherished seasonal customs have been handed down from one generation to the next. Discover some of the favorite traditions in German households.

Return to the ship for lunch.

This afternoon, sail through the Upper Middle Rhine Valley and pass Loreley Rock. This scenic gorge is the most famous stretch of the Rhine River, adorned with the vines that produce the area's famous Riesling grapes. Some 40 castles built during the Holy Roman Empire stand imposingly on the terraced hills, and fortified towns and villages once doubled as toll stations for passing ships.

Folk tales have developed around the Loreley Rock for centuries; the one most associated with it stems from a 19th-century German Romantic poem involving a beautiful, but spurned, sorceress, who upon being convicted of luring men to their deaths, jumped to her own death from the rock. Poet Heinrich Heine later elaborated on the theme in his 1823 poem, "Die Lorelei," depicting a siren whose bewitching song caused passing sailors to crash their ships on the rocks. Learn more from a cruise expert as you sail.

Glühwein Party. Before dinner tonight, gather for a Glühwein party with your shipmates. If you haven't already tried it at one of the holiday markets, you'll delight in this warm concoction of cloves, cinnamon, citrus and red wine, a wintertime favorite!

The ship arrives in Cologne late tonight.

Day 7 | Cologne

MS Amadeus Queen

Cologne. Germany's oldest major city, Cologne takes pride in its vibrant cultural scene and its awe-inspiring Gothic cathedral. Topped by two ornately decorated spires, the Dom was under construction for more than 630 years. During a guided walking tour in the old town, see its highlights and marvel at the cathedral's impressive exterior, then step inside to see the stone columns soaring upward toward the vaulted ceiling. (Moderate)
